SEEING GREEN

Ideal for the woman who has (almost) everything, these one-of-a-kind earrings feature a nearly perfectly matched pair of ultra-rare, Fancy Intense Green diamonds in a feminine floral setting that's sure to inspire shades of envy. At 2.23 and 2.35 carats each, these GIA-certified gems—with a soft halo of rare Fancy Vivid Argyle Pink diamonds and surrounding dazzling white collection diamonds—are completely unique. Starting in January, this exclusive design will travel the United States, available for viewing and sale at seven of the nation's premier jewelers by appointment only. Second only to natural red diamonds in rarity and value, glimmering natural green diamonds are an obvious choice for savvy investors—not to mention a spectacular way to show off one of spring's must-have hues (price available upon request).
